continued effort for national liberation movement
~~because of~~ Nasr's ~~nationalist~~ authoritative policy, and the fact that political demonstrations are forbidden in Egypt, there is little likelihood the exhortations of foreign Communist parties (Italy, Syria, etc.) ~~that~~ against the regime in Egypt

~~that~~ the Egyptian CP will undertake violent action in the near future.

It is possible that some Egyptian Communists who received elementary military training during or after the Suez crisis may be infiltrated into

A Communist element calling itself the Egyptian Communist Party (Bolshevik) ~~has~~ emerged in January 1958 ~~in the event of local~~ or general political crises, and as agents of non-Communist organizations exploiting anti-Western demonstrations in which and violence directed against official US installations and leading ~~carrying out~~ acts of sabotage to ~~weaken the positions of western-oriented~~ on governments ~~political groups in these countries~~ local figures could be carried out

against NASSR
~~and~~ denouncing ~~the possibility of violent action inspired by this group~~
~~and has denounced~~ NASSR as a ~~tool~~ instrument of the imperialism of the group ~~at~~ membership and international ties (if any) ~~have not been identified~~ but it is

Cannot be dismissed.
